The Toll Gate.—A delightful promenade from Sandgate to Folkestone leads past the old Toll Gate in the picture. Verdure-covered cliffs on the one hand, the "many-twinkling smile of ocean" on the other, nature is seen in all her freshness and beauty. At high tide the road is close to the edge of the sea, and at low water we can sit and admire the weed-covered rocks and the Boulogne Steamer making its way to the Harbour.

To dearest Edie - with fondest love & best wishes for many many happy birthday - from Your loving friend Annie Wilson.
